A SUCCESSFUL COUNTRY STORE

The C. F. Rider Store at Lime City Carries a Complete Line of High Grade Hardware.

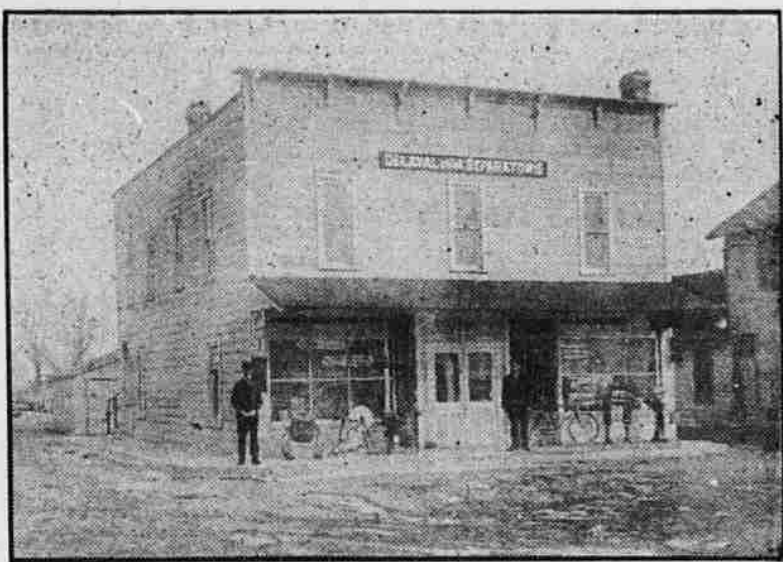

A city store in a country town is the very proper manner of speaking of the C. F. Rider general hardware store at Lime City.

Located in the heart of a rich farming community, patronized by a class of people who desire and can well afford the best goods the markets afford, Mr. Rider decided to place before the people of the community a stock of goods that would be equal in quality of any to be found in any city store. That he judged the community cor-grade mower sold at a low price that is not equalled in any other town.

In paints oils and varnishes he carries the justly celebrated Warren paints and the Ohio Varnish Company's goods, and "Shine Easy" which is just the right system for saving the varnish on buggies and automobiles.

There is also a full line of Keen Kutter goods and aluminum ware, also clocks, watches, silverware and shaving sundries.

The C. F. Rider Store, at Lime City.

rectly has been made manifest by the large and constantly increasing trade that he has established.

His store room is a model of neatness and contains a most complete stock of the best quality of goods in his line and the "line" contains a greater variety than is usually found in stores located in the best towns in the state.

It is not enough to state that he carries a full line of hardware—the stock does not stop there.

There are four store rooms filled with goods. The principal sales room contains the hardware of every description including the Globe heating and cook stoves. The electric welded ingot iron range (or cook stove) is the finest cook stove on the market and with each stove the purchaser is given a fully paid up insurance policy, insuring the stove against destruction from rust or corrosion. There is also a full line of the celebrated wickless blueflame, oil burner cook stoves and heaters, and the Quick Meal gasoline stoves.

The DeLaval and Simmons cream separators—two of the best separators on the market.

In lawn mowers there is a high

In another building there is a full line of buggies, and as a representative of the Peters buggy company, Mr. Rider offers the best buggy for the money on the market and assures his trade there are none better made. In this department is also a full line of harness, collars, robes and whips.

A third store room contains a stock of gasoline engines which is just the article for use on the farm for pumping, grinding or furnishing power for any purpose. He also furnishes all necessary supplies for plumbing, and a complete line of pumps.

Another store room is filled with wire fencing, gates and posts and there is also a large stock of sand, lime, cement and plaster.

The Rider store is certainly a credit to the community and to its owner who constantly strives to supply his patrons just what they want in any thing that is high grade in his varied line of goods.

Courteous and accommodating in dealing with the trade who are satisfied that they are receiving the most and best goods for their money. The Rider store at Lime City is constantly increasing its business and standing in the community.

AFTER MANY YEARS

Rosewell Messenger Wins Title to Valuable Toledo Property.

Rosewell E. Messenger, of Perrysburg, is entitled to the Calvin block at Summit and Cherry sts. Toledo, according to the decision of the supreme court of the United States. The decision ends a fight that has been made through the common pleas, circuit and supreme courts of Ohio and the district, appellate and supreme courts of the United States.

In practically all the state courts Messenger won. Peter Anderson, of Memphis, won nearly every decision in the United States court. The chain of title by which Messenger claimed the property was passed upon in favor of Messenger's ancestors by Morrison R. Waite, late chief justice of the United States supreme court, when Waite was practicing law in Toledo.

Anderson claimed the property by the provisions of the will of his grandfather Henry Anderson. Messenger claims to have inherited from his grandfather, Calvin Bronson.

In the opinion holding that Anderson had no title, Justice Holmes decided that the opinion of the supreme court of Ohio should be followed. The decision means that Anderson will not only lose the property but will have to pay the costs. As a result of the decision a big sum of rent, which was tied up in the hands of receivers will go to Messenger.

The fight has been a long one, but during its continuance Mr. Messenger has accepted the situation most gracefully and his sudden change from wealth and affluence seemed only to bring out the strength of his manly character. For several years he has been employed in Toledo and he has shown a marked ability for business and has become so pleased with his success in the business world that he declares he shall continue in the work that he took up after the income from his fortune was withheld from him during the court proceedings of the past several years.

Since coming to Perrysburg, Mr. and Mrs. Messenger have made a host of friends who are greatly pleased over what is to them a restoration to their legal rights.

ENDS HUNT FOR RICH GIRL.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at C. P. Champney.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. It's guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at C. P. Champney.

P. H. S. WINS GAME.

Perrysburg High has won a base ball game. My but doesn't that sound good? While it was not strictly an all high team, nevertheless it was supposed to be but as usual everyone could not be present and a few ex-high pupils were used. Even if P. H. S. did use outsiders they did not do as Toledo did—go and get several professionals to play. Considering all these things the teams were about alike when the game was called.

Up to the close of the fourth inning it was a close and fast game but after that Toledo lost hope—also lost ability to pitch and hit—and it was a one sided affair for Perrysburg.

Webb and Noble played fine ball for Perrysburg but it has not yet been decided who were the "stars" for Toledo, unless perhaps Jones, the pitcher (who appeared that this was his first game). Had it not been for Perrysburg furnishing two players to Toledo the score might have been worse but we won and that is sufficient. The score at the end of the game stood 12 to 5.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Not Much Doing About the Temple of Justice.

Sheriff Heald returned Thursday night from East St. Louis, Ill., with Samuel Patton, aged about fifty, for whose arrest a warrant was sworn out in the court of Justice Fildes at Rossford. Patton is a carpenter and was contracting in Rossford when he left there two years ago. He has six children, four of whom are said to be under age, and the arrest came about after the older boy had found his hands too full to care for the younger members of the family. Patton was working for a contractor in East St. Louis. He had been in Arkansas for a while.

Wm. and Free C. Asmus have brought suit against Edgar M. Camp et al to quiet title to forty acres in Section 27, Middleton township. Some uncancelled mortgages are the cause of the suit.

Hattie M. Oberdorf has brought suit for divorce from R. V. Oberdorf on the grounds of extreme cruelty. They were married June 10th, 1909 and have a two year old child. She complains that he was in the habit of ridiculing her and of telling her of his exploits in questionable places.

DISEASED CORN PLANTS

Corn Diseases of Last Season May Reappear in 1912.

In November, 1911, warning was sent out by the Department of Botany of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, concerning the serious seed corn situation then probable because of new diseases attacking ear corn. Subsequently further studies of the corn diseases were made, and upon application of the Experiment Station an emergency appropriation was allowed to engage a special assistant for the study of corn diseases.

An Assistant Botanist, who has been working upon corn diseases for the year or more preceding was assigned to the special corn disease work and has continued it since that time. He has found that the cob-rot disease has apparently not spread greatly since last fall, but that certain other corn diseases longer and better known, perhaps, do extend their injuries upon unhusked corn in the field. The percentage of sound corn has been found to be reduced when left standing in shock.

It is desired to increase the information at hand as to deceased corn plants during the season of 1912. While the men are working in the crop during the growing period it is easy to detect any plants which wilt down, turn yellow or otherwise show diseased conditions. It is requested that reports be made of these occurrences and that specimens be sent to the Experiment Station for examination. These specimens should include the whole root system of the plant, freed as nearly as possible from the excess dirt and wrapped to prevent excessive drying out.

It is believed that the disease may possibly be spread during the mid-summer, especially when serious drouths occur or other irregularities of weather conditions. The final solution of corn disease questions will depend largely upon the number of observers of the growing crop and the care they find it possible to give in getting full information and specimens for those investigating the subject.

Specimens and reports of observations will be gladly received.

Address: Department of Botany, Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, Wooster, Ohio.

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. It's the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at C. P. Champney.
